WITH OUR BOYS IN SERVICE

Nick Sassarini steps into the news this week with a letter from his base in India in which he tells us that he had just ran into Sergeant Ray Saibini, "and he looked swell. He was surprised to see me and didn't even know I was in this country. And boy we sure talked about home. We spent a couple or hours telling each other about the news. This country is sure the bunk. In fact I wouldn't stay here after the war if they paid me $500 a month. I'll sure be glad to see the states after this experience!" In speaking of home, Nickie said: "I'll bet there aren't any young men around except you and some of the old men like Walt Loynd and Penie. By the way, say hello to them for me and tell Penie he sure hit it on the nose about me coming here. I sure miss his milk shakes and can hardly wait to get back to them."

Lucca Sassarini received a gift from son, Nick last weekend, of a black velvet cloth centered with a picture of the Tajmahal done in silver thread and sequins with the words India, 1944, beneath the attractive motif to outline the picture.

A picture of Nick's brother, Augie over in the Hawaiian Islands, lounging on the ground with other soldiers and a photo of him riding a horse came about the same time to gladden the Sassarini household. The photo looks like Augie is putting on weight.

A diversion again to the gals in the service—Azad Joseph has been transferred to San Francisco in the WAVES and is working in a naval supply depot. She was one of 19 to come west from New York.

Mrs. A. E. Burlingham receives letters from her SeaBee husband still in the Aleutians and he writes that he is well as can be expected. Mrs. Burlingham's son, Roy Kendrick, believed on active dtuy, hasn't been heard from since the middle of May

Mrs. Helga Olander of Forest Inn at Tahoe received word two weeks ago that her son, Staff Sergeant Phillip Olander, was missing in action over Germany where he was turret gunner and flight officer on a bomber. Companions in another bomber said they believed the crew parachuted to safety.

Mrs. Lavon Joseph wrote from La Jolla that she and daughter, Victoria Frances expect to leave soon for Georgia to join Lt. Joseph.

Mrs. Ernest Guidotti has a Jun letter from her husband in a war zone, who is looking forward to returning home.

Sgt. Carl Brooks of Lake Tahoe has been transferred and is now stationed at Waco, Texas.

Captain Vern Nelson of the infantry, erstwhile Bank of America employe here, now has a New York APO address. Mrs. Nelson may return to Truckee until Vern is back from the wars.

Word has been received here, via the Colfax Record that Sgt. Walter Keck of the air corps expects to be married in New York on July 8.

James Frazier, in the South Pacific with the navy, became the father of a girl on Tuesday, June 27, born at the San Diego Naval hospital. Linda Aileen weighed 6 pounds and 10 ounces and both mother and daughter are reported doing w'l. Mrs. Ray Frazier of Lake Forest plans to leave to go see her new granddaughter soon

CAR FIRE FAILS TO INTERFER IN PLAN FOR RENO WEDDING

A little thing like a fire which completely destroyed his car near Donner Lake Sunday morning, ..did not interfer with the marriage.. plans of Phillip Nerveraz and Shirley J. Kelburg, both of Oakland, but the matter caused the highway patrol some trouble in tracing the car's owner.

Patrolman William Gautsche who discovered the carcass of the car Sunday, made far reaching inquiries and was still hoping to find the owner, when he had occasion Monday to stop a Nevada licensed car going west and found in it Nervarez and his bride, who, burned out or not, had proceeded to Reno, got married, purchased another car and blissfully drove home.

Jennings Named To Succeed Bill Hack With S. P.

Hack to Retire As Former Truckee Man Takes Over Position

M. L. Jennings, well known here where he worked as roadmaster for some time, has been named by J. W. Corbett, general manager for Southern Pacific Railroad to succeed W. L. (Bill) Hack, who will retire July 1, as superintendent of the company's Sacramento division.

Hack, whose record with the S. P. is envied by all railroaders, will retire and spend much of his time at his summer home on Donner Summit where he will "catch up on some fishing" he has missed since the start of the war.

Jennings, who is superintendent of the Portland division, will return as chief of the division in which he started railroading in Rocklin as a yardman in 1906. He has been head of the Portland division since 1942.

Jennings, aside from Hack, has probably had more experience with "the Hill" than any other man and spent years working as roadmaster throughout the region.

Hack's retirement will be regretted as he was one of the most able railroaders in the United States, but Jennings is expected to be a worthy and able successor. Both men are well liked in the division.

Thomas Proved Hero In Battle Before His Death

Purple Heart Presented To Truckee Boy After Death in War

Before Japanese bullets snuffed out the life of Pfc. James Thomas, 18-year-old Truckee boy and son of Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas, he made a fine account of himself in the battle of Bougainville.

This news came to Mrs. Thomas in a letter from a close friend of Jim's who said that he did not know how many japs Jim killed before he was killed, as he fought bravely until the last minute. The writer of the letter, Kenneth Steele hopes to come to Truckee following the war and talk with the Thomases.

Last week Jim's father received a letter from Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson which follows:

The President has requests me to inform you that the Purple Heart has been awarded posthumously to your son, Private First Class James R. Thomas, Infantry, who sacrificed his life in defense of his country.

The medal, which you will receive shortly is of slight intrinsic value, but rich with the tradition for which Americans are so gallantly giving their lives. The Father of our Country, whose profile and coat of arms adorn the medal, speaks from it across centuries to the men who fight today for the proud freedom he founded.

Nothing the War Department can do or say will in any sense repair the loss of your loved one. He has gone, however, in honor and the goodly company of patriots. Let me, in communicating to you the country's deep smpathy, also express to you its gratitude for his valor and devotion.

Please believe me,
Sincerely yours,
Henry L. Stimson

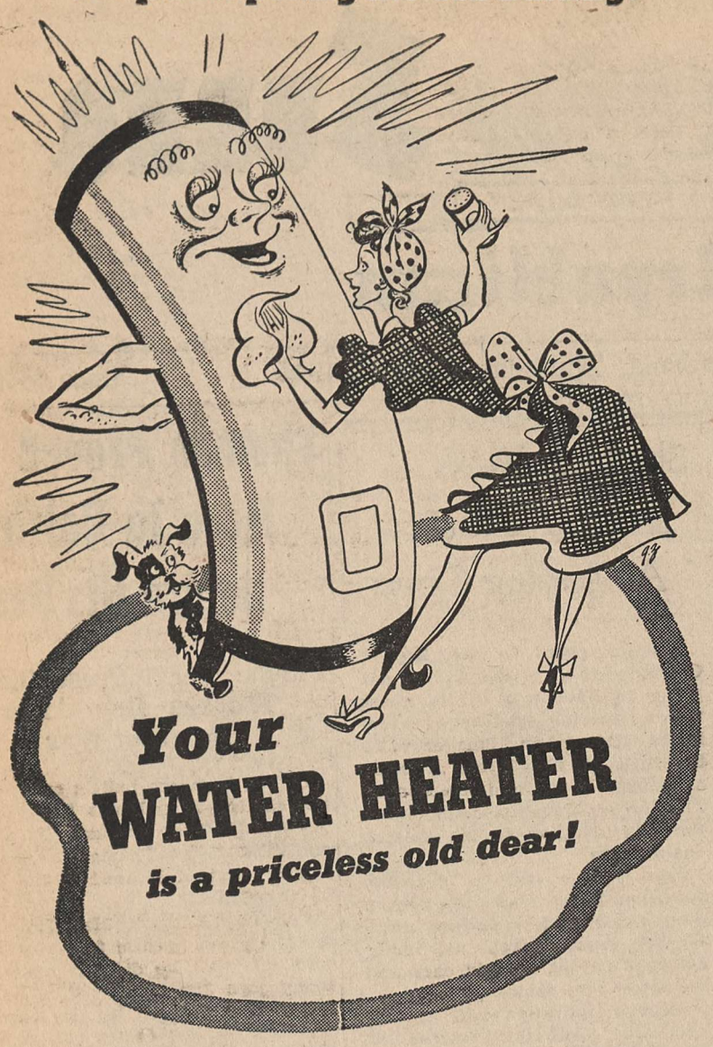
Keep Pampering the Old Darling!



Your WATER HEATER is a priceless old dear!

He's as comforting as old shoe...your dependable water heater? Normally he would be no worry. But you are doing more family washing and doing more "putting up" that means scalding jars and glasses... doing more floor scrubbing on your own hands and knees. That's all good and patriotic work, BUT... Your water heater is working harder delivering more hours of heating the gallons of water you are using in greater and greater amount. So, sort of pamper your water heater; won't you? This is how; do not waste hot water. Check leaking faucets. Open the drain valve on your heater every few months and run water into a bucket until clear of sediment. And when trouble seems serious, call a master plumber.

POST WAR FUNDS AVAILABLE FOR PUBLIC WORKS IN STATE

Nevada County, inculding the incorporated cities with the county boundry, have been allocated a total of $40,976 for acquisitions, rights of way, engineering, plans and specifications for post war public works projects under the terms of Senate Bill 48, passed by the recent session of the state legislature annd signed into law last Tuesday by Governor Earl Warren.

The bill, which was sponsored by Senator Jesse M. Mayo, chairman of the Senate Committee on past war construction, is designed to aid the cities, counties and local agencies to build a back-log of plans and blueprints for public works to be used in a supplement to private industry in taking up the slack in post-war employment.

"It is the hope of our committee and the legislature," said Senator Mayo, "that the counties and cities of the state will take advantage of this state fund and proceed at once to make plans for needed public works now, so that at the end of the war if it is found necessary to use public works construction as a means of aiding unemployment, we can have a sound program actually blueprinted and ready to go. If we act now and build up a sound program of needed public works projects, we can escape the necessity for WPA, SRA and other relief agencies after the war."

For Nevada County and local agencies within the county, the total is divided $27,573 for plans, engineering and specifications and $13,403 for acquisition of sites, rights of way, etc.

Communist party-liners (even tho the party is now offiically dead are still plenty active when anything pops up which effects the Soviet. Currently the hammer and sickle defenders are in a dithe of excitement because the newly-proposed Asiatic exclusion act, for which initiative petitions are being circulated, s so broad in its language that it might apply to the Soviet Caucasus. The act would prohibit persons inelegible to citizenship from owning either lands or boats in California.

Washington politicos, revising their time-tables, now confidently expect peace in Europe before the November elections. And political strategy is being revamped accordingly!

Eighteen states, our spy advises, already have memoralized Congress in favor of the proposed constitutional amendment to limit income taxes (after the war) to a maximum of 25 per cent of the net income. Within Within another year, claim backers of the proposal, a majority of the states will have lined up behind the tax limit plan.

AMERICANS HAVE $2.50 FOR EVERY $1 OF MERCHANDISE

Americans have $2.50 ready to spend for every dollar's worth of merchandise available, aoccrding to Paul S Willis, president of the Grocery Manufacturers of Aemrica, who recently told members of the Biscuit and Cracker Makers Association that the public after the war "will have money to spend and they will want the best."

Willis said the estimated purchasing power was at $85 billion at the end of 1943 and this is expected to rise to $110 billion by the end of 1944. With this pressure from accumulated purchasing power, competition for available goods can be expected.

CEILING PRICES ON USED CARS DOES NOT MEAN THEY ARE RATIONED

The Office of Price Administration said today that price celilings on used automobiles do not in any way involve rationing of used cars.

OPA said it has not received a directive from the War Production Board to ration used acrs. The Office of Defense Transportation and the WPB have not reached a decision on the question of whether used cars will be rationed.

OPA's statment was made to answer erroneous and widespread reports that used cars will be rationed July 10.

NO RATION CHANGE FOR GAS IS SEEN

There will be no change in gasoline rations from July 1 through September 30, Gilbert McNeil, Sacramento district OPA rationing executive, announced this week. McNeil said hopeful stories that larger rations might be given were nullified by the national announcement that the civilian allotment had been reduced 7,000 barrels daily below the second quarter quota.

The OPA executive said motorists are not sharing their cars enough to permit the nation to live within the gasoline quota. He warned that "No Gasoline Today" signs on closed stations would result, because "make no mistake about it, the army and navy will get their gasoline first and the civilians will have to get along with what is left."

HOUSER GOES TO PRIMARY AS FAVORITE TO WIN OVER NEW DEAL INCUMBENT

Lieutenant Governor Fredreick F. Houser, Republican nominee for United States Senator, will go into the November election contest favoried to win over New Deal incumbent Sheridan Downey on the basis of official tabulation of primary election returns just released by Secretary of State Frannk M. Jordan.

Analiysis of the official returns show Downey received only 38 per cent of the total votes cast by the Democrats and Republicans at the May 16 primary, while the Houser and Anti-Downey votes in both major parties was 68 per cent of the total.

This is regarded by Republican leaders as significant in view of the fact that Ellis Patterson in the 1942 primary election for lieutenant governor received just under 50 per cent of the total cost on both tickets, and did not increase his percentage at all in the final election. He wound up in the November election still just under 50 per cent of the total vote cast for that office. In this connection Sheridan Downey could increase his percentage by 11 per ecnt and still lose the race in November.
